

Words from our parents

“My child trusts, likes and enjoys his time with his therapist”

“From my meetings with my child’s therapist I have learnt ways to help my child understand how he feels and how to cope better with his emotions”

“Therapy can help change perceptions of a child and diffuse a cause and blame approach”

“My child has a chance to talk about his problems and this helps him”

“Therapy has not only had an impact on my daughter but on the whole family”

Words from our children

“I like seeing my therapist because if I am angry I can play around and there’s lots of things that calm me down”

“It helps you, you get to do fun things and when you are having fun you can express your feelings”

“My therapist is really sweet, she is the best therapist and is good at talking about feelings”

“My therapist has helped me to understand why I feel sad and how I can feel happier”

“I like my therapist because she really listens to me and hears what I say”

Words from our teachers

“The therapeutic services at Highgate Primary have had such a positive impact on the children in my class. They feel supported to work through their problems which impacts on their happiness, behaviour and ultimately their learning”

“Therapy allows children to access a full and successful life in school”

“Children see their therapist for very good reasons and they love the sessions as they give them an opportunity to express themselves”

“The service helps children build self-esteem and develop social relationships which has a big positive impact on class dynamics”

“Therapy makes children who may be experiencing difficulties feel that they are cared for, special and loved”
